

Sarah Bush

Author and Speaker

As a teenager, Sarah Bush made a commitment to the Lord, yet struggled with how to pray. She asked the Lord to give her the desire to pray, to get up early and spend time with Him. God has certainly answered her by giving her a passion for prayer.

Sarah Bush is launched her speaking career with Christian Women's Clubs, and is now a speaker for the EPC - Evangelical Presbyterian Church. She enjoys facilitating women's ministry events and retreats of all Christian denominations. With a passion for prayer, she attends Moms In Touch International (MITI) meetings, and is an active participant on the prayer team at church. A native of North Carolina, her family resides in Winston-Salem. Sarah enjoys spending time with her family. In her free time, she escapes by reading in the sun, scrapbooking, and traveling to the mountains or beaches of NC.

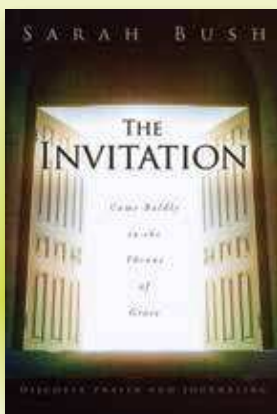

Sarah has had a habit of journaling for over twenty-five years, recording what God teaches her and how He reveals His work in her life. Over the years, she has used various journals and prayer guides, but was never able to locate two that worked in harmony.

This desire lead Sarah to create an inspirational book on the benefits of prayer and journaling, sharing personal experiences along with a practical companion prayer guide and journal for daily use.

Sarah passionately desires to deliver a practical prayer tool into the hands of God's people to help them commune with God. She lovingly inspires readers with God's promise of His presence. Her hope is that their prayer lives will increase as they come to an eternal perspective on prayer while encountering the living God and remembering His faithfulness as they record their life journey and His answers are revealed. Sarah teaches, shepherds, and leads others in the disciplines of prayer and journaling including a variety of related topics; listening, discovering your purpose, and more. She continues her mission with the release of her first companion set, The Invitation-Come Boldly to the Throne of Grace and Grace for the Journey and is endorsed by Gary Chapman.

You are invited!

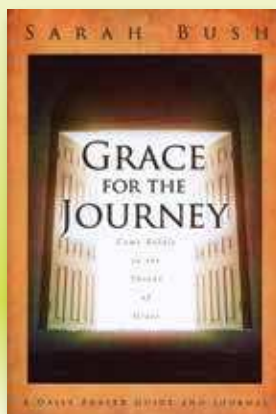

An honorable King is patiently waiting for your response to a long-standing invitation to His throne. The King requests your presence. Now is the time to worship. "Come!"

The Invitation

God's love is revealed as His long-standing invitation welcomes man into His presence. Man's response to the invitation is by faith. Together, the disciplines of praying God's word and journaling cultivate a surrendered heart—accomplishing God's purpose—and, thereby discovering our purpose and the resulting, abundant life.
